

Privacy Policy

INTRODUCTION

Maciaszek Brown Law (we, us, our) complies with the New Zealand Privacy Act 1993 (the Act) when dealing with personal information. Personal information is information about an identifiable individual (a natural person).

This policy sets out how we will collect, use, disclose and protect your personal information. Your engagement or continued use of this website provides your acknowledgment of this Privacy Policy and your consent to us collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information in the manner set out below.

This policy does not limit or exclude any of your rights under the Act. If you wish to seek further information on the Act, see www.privacy.org.nz.

CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

We may change this policy by uploading a revised policy onto the website. The change will apply from the date that we upload the revised policy.

WHO DO WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION FROM

We collect personal information about you from:

- You, when you provide that personal information to us, including via the website and any related service, through any registration or subscription process, through any contact with us (e.g. telephone call or email), or when you engage us to provide legal services to you.
- Third parties where you have authorised this or the information is publicly available.

If possible, we will collect personal information from you directly.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will use your personal information:

- To verify your identity;
- To provide services to you;
- To enter into government web-based platforms as required to complete legal services as instructed by you (e.g. Land Information New Zealand, Land Online Platform and New Zealand Companies Office database and Company Registration and Maintenance Platform);
- To market our services and products to you, including contacting you electronically (e.g. by text or email for this purpose);
- To improve the services and products that we provide to you;
- To undertake credit checks of you (if necessary);
- To bill you and to collect money that you owe us, including authorising and processing credit card transactions;
- To respond to communications from you, including a complaint;
- To protect and/or enforce our legal rights and interests, including defending any claim;
- For any other purpose authorised by you or the Act; and
- To comply with regulatory requirements imposed by law including, but not limited to, the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (AML/CFT Act) and the United States

Foreign Accounts Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and Common Reporting Standards (CRS).

DISCLOSING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may disclose your personal information to:

- Any other person, business or entity necessary to enable us to provide legal services to you in accordance with your instructions;
- Any business that supports our services and products, including any person that hosts or maintains any underlying IT system or data centre that we use to provide the website or other services and products;
- A credit reference agency for the purpose of credit checking you and/or for the purpose of AML/CFT Act compliance;
- Other third parties (for anonymised statistical information);
- A person who can require us to supply your personal information (e.g. a regulatory authority);
- Any other person authorised by the Act or another law (e.g. a law enforcement agency); and
- Any other person authorised by you.

A business that supports our services and products may be located outside New Zealand. This may mean your personal information is held and processed outside New Zealand.

PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will take reasonable steps to keep your personal information safe from loss, unauthorised activity, or other misuse.

ACCESSING AND CORRECTING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Subject to certain grounds for refusal set out in the Act, you have the right to access your readily retrievable personal information that we hold and to request a correction to your personal information. Before you exercise this right, we will need evidence to confirm that you are the individual to whom the personal information relates.

In respect of a request for correction, if we think the correction is reasonable and we are reasonably able to change the personal information, we will make the correction. If we do not make the correction, we will take reasonable steps to note on the personal information that you requested the correction. If you want to exercise either of the above rights, email us at law@macbrownlaw.co.nz. Your email should provide evidence of who you are and set out the details of your request (e.g. the personal information, or the correction, that you are requesting).

We may charge you our reasonable costs of providing to you copies of your personal information or correcting that information.

We may destroy all hard copy files and documents for any matter (other than any documents that we hold in safe custody for you).

INTERNET USE

While we take reasonable steps to maintain secure internet connections, if you provide us with personal information over the internet, the provision of that information is at your own risk.

If you follow a link on our website to another site, the owner of that site will have its own privacy policy relating to your personal information. We suggest you review that site's privacy policy before you provide personal information.
